We build bridges without excluding that we live in a time of noticable tensions and martial conflicts.

Together we are working on a vision for a to-be community for everyone, without limits or national conflicts.

We develop perspectives of social defense and of nonviolent action to overcome our powerlessness and exert our influence.

We practice Kundalini Yoga and other peaceful-spiritual traditions to connect with our roots and to strenghten our expressiveness.

Participans:

we had 32 Participants on site during the three days,
8 from Ukraine (who live in Germany)
6 from Russia (who live in Germany)
5 Teenagers
about 600 People who joined online, mainly from Ukraine and Russia
